

Courtesy Call to the Honourable Henry Puna,
Prime Minister of the Cook Islands

On 5 August at 11:30am, Ambassador Takata paid a courtesy call to Prime Minister Henry Puna and conveyed his congratulations on the 50 anniversary of self-government of the Cook Islands. Ambassador Takata also conveyed his hopes to further strengthen the relationship of both two countries. Prime Minister Puna expressed his congratulations on the presentation of the credentials of Ambassador Takata, and further expressed his appreciation for Japan's assistance which has been of great importance to the Cook Islands.

Ambassador Takata and Hon. Henry Puna, Prime Minister