

Courtesy Call to the Honourable Teariki Heather,
Deputy Prime Minister and Police Minister

On 5 August at 2:00pm, Ambassador Takata paid a courtesy call to Deputy Prime Minister and Police Minister Heather. Ambassador Takata requested that the safety of Japanese nationals and tourists staying in the Cook Islands be assured and that custodianship of Japan's assistance be ensured. Deputy Prime Minister Heather expressed his appreciation for Japan's assistance and acknowledged to assure the safety of Japanese nationals and tourists.

Ambassador Takata and Hon Teariki Heather, Deputy Prime Minister