

FREE MONTHLY JAPANESE MOVIE NIGHT

GANTZ

(c) Hiroya Oku/Shueisha (c) 2011 "GANTZ" FILM PARTNERS

5:45pm, Tuesday 27th and Thursday 29th January

Language: Japanese with English Subtitles. Released: 2011. Running Time: 130mins. Rating: R16 (horror scenes and violence).
Director: Shinsuke Sato. Cast: Kazunari Ninomiya (from popular group 'Arashi'), Kenichi Matsuyama.

Director Shinsuke Sato, who is well known as a Japanese film director, screen writer and video game designer, brings Hiroya Oku's popular sci-fi manga 'Gantz' to life on the big screen, fusing live-action footage featuring explosions and physical stunts with top quality visual effects. Two childhood friends are struck and killed by a train when attempting to save the life of a stranger. However, they are then transported to a room containing a mysterious sphere called "Gantz". They become part of a brutal game of survival when Gantz sends them back to earth with other recently deceased people to hunt down and kill aliens hiding there.

Free admission based on a first-come, first-served basis. Elevators are available from 5:30pm. A short Japan video topics DVD will be shown from 5:45pm before the start of the feature film at 6:00pm.

Japan Information and Cultural Centre, Level 18, The Majestic Centre, 100 Willis Street website: www.nz.emb-japan.go.jp e-mail: jicc@wl.mofa.go.jp tel: 04-495-8344