

Japanese Pottery Workshop ~ Free Admission

Workshop by Shigemitsu Ohashi

Date: Friday, 28 March

Times: 3-5pm or 6-8pm

Venue: Wellington Potters' Association,
130 Grant Road, Thorndon

Bring: Old apron and wear old clothes

Participants: 10 per session

The Japan Information and Cultural Centre (JICC) in association with the Wellington Potters' Association (WPA), is pleased to invite you to participate in a Japanese Pottery Workshop by Shigemitsu Ohashi. He is a WPA member and has extensive experience as a potter in Japan and New Zealand.

Japanese pottery embodies a quiet aesthetic sensibility influenced by Sado (the Japanese way of tea). The development of the art can be attributed to the widespread popularity of the tea ceremony. Style and materials used differ depending on the region.

Please register your interest for this workshop by 5pm, Monday 17 March 2014 by email to application@wl.mofa.go.jp, including your name, telephone number, email address and which session you would like to attend.

Places are limited to 10 people per session. All registrations will be put into a draw for participation. Results will be notified on Thursday 20 March. For further information, please call (04) 472 7807.
