Dear JLPT Test Takers,

Starting in July 2025, the use of mobile phones/smartwatches during the JLPT, including during break periods, will be strictly prohibited. Please be aware that simply touching your mobile phone during the break may be considered a violation of the test regulations.

Therefore, we kindly ask you to make any necessary arrangements in advance, such as coordinating with the person picking you up, to avoid any issues on the test day.

Thank you for your cooperation.
