

Deputy Prime Minister Aso's visit to New Zealand

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance of Japan Taro Aso visited Auckland, New Zealand on July 24th and 25th after attending the G20 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors Meeting held in Buenos Aires.

During his visit, Deputy PM Aso discussed a wide range of issues with Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of NZ Winston Peters, including the bilateral relationship between Japan and New Zealand and current international affairs, at a dinner hosted by Deputy PM Peters.