

Commemorative Guest Book to Celebrate the Accession of His Majesty The Emperor Naruhito

To celebrate the Accession of His Majesty the Emperor Naruhito on 1 May, a commemorative guest book was opened in the Embassy of Japan in New Zealand from 8 to 10 May for well-wishers to sign their congratulations. Many people, including the NZ government officials, diplomatic corps and Japanese residents, visited the Embassy to record their messages of congratulations.

Ambassador Kobayashi and Mr. Swain, Chief of Protocol, NZ Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade
