

Ambassador's Prize - Victoria University of Wellington & Massey Universities

On 22 February 2024, Minister OSHIMA presented the Ambassador's Prizes to Ms Naomi Milenka REYES DULANTO from Massey University and Ms Emma JOLLY from Victoria University of Wellington for their outstanding results amongst Japanese language students at their universities.

The Embassy has been awarding the Ambassador's Prize for Japanese language students for the past 15 years in recognition of the hard work of Japanese language students at both universities.

We also appreciate the long-standing dedication of Japanese lectures at both universities to the promotion of Japanese language education.

Congratulations to the both of you!
