

The Fourteenth Annual Wellington Regional Japanese Speech Competition in 2024

The 14th annual Wellington Regional Japanese Speech Competition took place on Friday, August 16, 2024, at Firth Hall, Wellington College. Organized by the Wellington Association of Japanese Language Teachers with support from the Japan Foundation, the event featured 21 contestants from nine secondary schools and Victoria University, Wellington. Students delivered speeches on a wide range of topics!

Ambassador's prize winner Riley Boyes (Year 12, Wellington College), Ambassador OSAWA Makoto, Embassy of Japan in New Zealand

Congratulations to all the winners!